Pig Dinner is postponed

In an abundance of concern for the safety of our Brotherhood in the wake of Covid-19, we have made the decision to cancel the plans we had to hold Pig Dinner at 707 on July 18. While we hope that the virus pandemic will be past us at that time, we don't know, and prefer to err on the safe side/ We have rescheduled it for the weekend of September 12th when the 80s classes are planning their reunion weekend. See below.

COVID-19 effect at 707

While we have no known cases of the Corona virus at 707, the house turned into a ghost town when the University closed live classes and told students to go home. Four Brothers elected to stay through April, but the kitchen is ceasing operations in April. For the latest UM info you can go to their website on the coronavirus info <https://coronavirus.umich.edu/>

Reunion planned for 80s Brothers

Brothers Gary Rudnick and Jeff Gelfand have put out the call for the classes of the 80s to gather in A2 the weekend of Sept 12th. Building on the success of their gathering back in 2013 to honor the memory of Curt Frillmann, they plan to renew the bonding they established last time. Check out the email they have sent. <http://www.phigams.org/articles/80sreunion20>

The 1984 Pledge Class

Blast from the 80 past

As the memories start flooding back, let's take another look at the great newsletter that they issued back in May of '84. Enjoy the tribute to Wildcat, the honor to Herb Beyer, plans for Pig Dinner, three generations of Riggs, philosophy of Sean Martin, check out the full BCA members, list of Alpha Phi athletes, IFC recognitions, Scott Almquist comments, installation of the Detroit Graduate Chapter, and so much more. No wonder these classmates have such great gatherings!
